ACCOUNTING (BMAC)

Graduate Degree Program
College: Business

Abstract
The MS in Accounting from the University of Maryland’s Robert H. Smith School of Business is the perfect complement to your career. With specializations in tax, internal audit, financial regulation, and public accounting, you can choose which path your career takes. Smith’s top-ranked faculty, reputation for being among the best business schools in the Washington, D.C., region, scholarships and busy-season internships make this accounting program truly valuable.

The MS in Accounting program produces highly trained accounting professionals who are prepared for heightened accountability and the expanded role accounting plays in consulting, information management and strategic planning. You’ll learn to carry out the rigorous internal auditing required to meet today’s strict accounting and auditing standards.

Financial Assistance
Financial aid is available to qualified students in the form of fellowships, graduate assistantships, and scholarships.
