

BEHAVIORAL AND COMMUNITY HEALTH, MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH (M.P.H.)

Non-thesis option only: 45 credits

The MPH in Behavioral and Community Health is a 45-credit program which includes coursework, an internship, and a MPH project. It takes 2 years to complete as a full-time student and 3.5-5.0 years to complete as a part-time student. The program cannot be completed in less than 2 years due to limited course availability. At this time, the majority of courses are held in-person on the College Park campus, a few are online.
