

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (BMBA)

The University of Maryland Robert H. Smith School of Business is approved to operate in the District of Columbia by the Washington, DC Higher Education Licensure Commission.

In the internationally recognized, top-ranked MBA program at Maryland Smith, future leaders develop strong analytical skills and an understanding of the way business functions like marketing, finance and operations interact.

Smith MBAs learn to leverage big data to make better decisions and explore their career options in a tight-knit community that encourages collaboration and intelligent risk-taking. With a Smith MBA, you'll be ready to lead fearlessly in any industry. The MBA program is offered in a full-time and part-time format.

Financial Assistance

Financial aid is available to qualified students in the form of fellowships, graduate assistantships, and scholarships.

Facilities and Special Resources

The Office of Career Services (OCS) provides dedicated, professional support to help students launch their careers. The center links students directly to recruiters through a variety of services, including on- and off-campus recruitment and the online resume database, which matches a Smith MBA to the right industry position. The OCS also participates in regional and national career forums and job fairs, such as the National MBA Consortium, the National Black MBA Conference, the National Hispanic MBA Conference, the National Association of Women MBA's Conference, and the Career Services Council.

The Smith School is located in the Baltimore/Washington, D.C./Northern Virginia corridor. This region offers one of the highest concentrations of culture, diversity, and career opportunities in the country.
