

CLASSICS, MASTER OF ARTS (M.A.)

---

Students choose either the Latin or Latin and Greek track. All students must pass a proficiency exam, submit a Scholarly Article Analysis, commentary, and present at the Classics department research conference.

Latin track: 30 credits required

Course	Title	Credits
Core Requirements
LATN472	Historical Development of the Latin Language	3
or LATN672	Historical Development of the Latin Language
Two courses may be in CLAS, HIST, or an allied field		6
Two of the remaining courses may be in LATN4xx, the others must be LATN6xx		21
Total Credits		30

Latin and Greek track: 33 credits required

Course	Title	Credits
Core Requirements
LATN472	Historical Development of the Latin Language	3
or LATN672	Historical Development of the Latin Language
GREK472	History and Development of the Greek Language	3
or GREK672	History and Development of the Greek Language
One course may be in CLAS, HIST, or an allied field		3
One of the remaining courses may be in LATN4xx; two of the remaining courses may be in GREK4xx; the others must be LATN6xx or GREK6xx		24
Total Credits		33