

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SCIENCES (ENVH)

Graduate Degree Program
College: School of Public Health

abstract

The M.S. program in Environmental Health Sciences, within the Maryland Institute for Applied Environmental Health (<https://sph.umd.edu/academics/departments-units/maryland-institute-applied-environmental-health/>) (MIAEH), School of Public Health, provides advanced graduate-level training with a focus on research and mitigation of major public health concerns influenced by environmental issues. The M.S. in Environmental Health Sciences covers an essential core of knowledge in environmental health and exposures sciences, epidemiology and biostatistics and includes completion of practical research training, culminating in a Master's Thesis. Within the program, there is a significant public health focus on populations of high vulnerability or those underserved, including those experiencing environmental injustice due to poverty or race. See our website (<https://sph.umd.edu/academics/masters-degrees/ms-environmental-health-sciences/>) for more information.

Students in the Ph.D. program in Environmental Health Sciences master an essential core of knowledge in environmental health, epidemiology and biostatistics. Elective courses and rotations with faculty, in field studies and/or laboratories provide students key skills required to specialize within the broader area of environmental health and become independent researchers. There is a significant research focus on events or outcomes affecting populations of high vulnerability or those underserved; including those experiencing environmental injustice due to poverty or race. See our website (<https://sph.umd.edu/academics/doctoral-degrees/phd-environmental-health-sciences/>) (<https://sph.umd.edu/academics/masters-degrees/ms-environmental-health-sciences/>) for more information.
