abstract

The Meyerhoff Center for Jewish Studies is one of the leading centers for Jewish Studies in the United States, boasting an internationally recognized faculty, an excellent and growing Jewish Studies library collection, and especially rich library, archive, and museum resources in the greater Washington area. If you are considering graduate work in Jewish Studies the following information may be useful to you.

The Jewish Studies Program offers a Graduate Certificate and a Masters Degree in Jewish Studies. In addition, Jewish Studies offers special degrees for teachers. The Hebrew Language Program is designed for prospective or current teachers of Hebrew. Students have the option of receiving a MEd in Education (Curriculum and Instruction), or an MA in Jewish Studies. In addition, students continue to have the ability to earn a MEd in Education Policy and Leadership with a Jewish Studies concentration through the College of Education.
