

SOCIOLOGY, MASTER OF ARTS (M.A.)

The graduate program in the Department of Sociology is designed for Ph.D. students. We do not offer a terminal Masters program and we will not accept or enroll students for the single purpose of acquiring a Masters degree. However, doctoral students may obtain a Master of Arts degree during their course of doctoral study by completing 30 credit hours.

Course	Title	Credits
Required courses:
SOCY620	Development of European and American Sociological Theory	3
SOCY601	Statistics For Sociological Research I	3
SOCY602	Statistics For Sociological Research II	3
SOCY699	Special Social Problems (SOCY699D - Special Social Problems)	3
SOCY699	Special Social Problems (SOCY699C - Special Social Problems)	1
SOCY616	Sociology Pro-Seminar	1
Select one course in proposal development		3
Complete an original research paper in the fourth semester		3
Remainder of coursework		10
Total Credits		30