

TECHNOLOGY MANAGEMENT (Z145)

Graduate Certificate Program
R.H. Smith School of Business

ABSTRACT

The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Technology Management prepares public or private sector managers of technology-dependent enterprises to effectively identify, transition, and leverage emergent technology across their organizations or markets. Courses are delivered in partnership with the A. James Clark School Engineering to facilitate cross-disciplinary instruction on research and development strategy, science and technology project valuation, technology entrepreneurship and commercialization, technical systems design, marketing emergent technology, and planning for technology resilience

Facilities and Special Resources

Launching this certificate in association with the existing Part Time MBA program will allow the Robert H. Smith School of Business to utilize its physical facilities, infrastructure and instructional equipment available in the off-site locations of the Ronald Reagan Building campus in Washington, D.C. and, eventually, new University of Maryland facilities in Crystal City. All courses will be offered at our DC campus on weekends when current Part Time MBA courses are not in session
