

TRANSLATION, POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE (P.B.C.)

The Graduate Certificate of Professional Studies in Translation (GCPS in Translation) is designed to equip you with the knowledge and skills required for entry-level work in the translation profession. Examples include serving as translators of general texts for information purposes and specialized texts in subject areas wherein you hold advanced qualifications (e.g., Master of Arts degree, and/or significant professional expertise). You will be grounded in the tenets of the profession, including professional conduct and ethics and guided through the steps needed to advance your professional skill set.

The GCPS in Translation is a 21-credit one year program, offering instruction in the fundamental skills of translation and includes the theoretical fields of translation studies, the translation professions, intercultural communication, and background knowledge in at least one of the following communication contexts: political communication, legal communication, or health communication.
