IMMR399 Internship in Immigration/Migration Studies (1-6 Credits)
Internship experience with an organization that works with or studies migration or immigrant populations. This experiential learning course provides training that enriches the students’ academic field of study and the IMMR transcript notation. Students submit a final written report of how the experience ties into their major field of study.
Prerequisite: HIST222, IMMR200, or IMMR400; and permission of the Center for Global Migration Studies required.
Restriction: Minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5; and must have earned a minimum of 60 credits.
Repeatable to: 6.0 credits if content differs.
Additional Information: This course is intended primarily for students seeking the Immigration and Migration Studies transcript notation, but exceptions will be considered for students with educational or career interests that lie in this area. Student internships must be approved by the Executive Director of the Center for Global Migration Studies. Students must secure an appropriate faculty mentor for the internship course. An internship course will be approved only if a faculty supervisor is available.

IMMR400 Vital Voices: Oral Histories of the Immigrant Experience (3 Credits)
An exploration of the dynamic subject of U.S. immigrant experience through the scope of individual immigrant life stories in a global context. Course will include an overview of U.S. and global immigration patterns and an introduction to the practice of oral history.
Recommended: HIST222; or IMMR200.
Credit Only Granted for: HIST428N, IMMR400, THET428I, or THET498V.
