The University of Maryland Alumni Association is the heart of the university, inspiring lifelong connections with a global network of more than 361,000 alumni. Through dynamic programming, membership benefits and more than 50 regional, affinity and academic networks, the Alumni Association serves as a portal through which Terps can connect and engage with the university and each other.

The Alumni Association provides hundreds of programs and initiatives, from events across the nation to virtual professional development and mentorship. Last year, the Alumni Association launched Terrapins Connect in conjunction with the Career Center to provide an exclusive online mentorship and networking platform for alumni, students and faculty/staff.

Thousands of alumni attend Alumni Association programs each year, including game watches, networking, industry-focused and members-only events. Alumni Association members support and elevate the university and its current and future students, in addition to receiving exclusive benefits.
