

ROMANCE LANGUAGES MAJOR

Program Director: Giuseppe Falvo, Ph.D.

The Romance Languages Program is intended for students who want to specialize in two of the three Romance language majors offered in SLLC: French, Italian, and Spanish. Students selecting this major take a total of 45 credits selected from courses in two of the three components. The first four courses listed under each group are required for that particular language component; exceptions or substitutions may be made with the approval of the departmental language advisor only, in consultation with the Romance Languages advisor. 21 credits are taken in each of the two languages, as specified, and three additional credits are taken at the 4xx level in either of the languages chosen. Literature or civilization courses may not be taken in translation. Students who wish to apply for Teacher's Certification should consult the College of Education.

Placement in Courses

For information about the World Language Placement, go to: <http://arhu.umd.edu/academics/world-language-placement/>.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of varied aspects of the cultures of the speakers of the two Romance languages selected.
2. Show competence in speaking, comprehending, writing in, and reading the two languages as a way to communicate with people of other cultures.
3. Demonstrate proficiency in oral and written expression on a range of topics in the two languages.
4. Demonstrate the ability to analyze and interpret texts in a variety of genres within each of the two language spheres.

REQUIREMENTS

Students must take language-acquisition courses sequentially. Once credit has been received in a higher level language acquisition or grammar course, a lower level course may not be taken for credit.
