Scholarships

Scholarships are available to the highest-achieving students at the University of Maryland (UMD). There are two types of scholarships, those that are merit-based and those that are need-based. The eligibility criteria for the different UMD merit-based scholarships are listed below. Please be sure to also check out UMD's departmental scholarships (https://financialaid.umd.edu/types-aid-umd-institutional-aid/departmental-scholarships/). Students are encouraged to contact the office or department responsible for selecting the recipients for more information on these programs. Current information about the merit scholarships offered through the Office of Undergraduate Admissions is available in the Finance (https://admissions.umd.edu/finance/) section of their website.

Banneker/Key Scholarship

The University of Maryland seeks to identify and select some of the brightest high school seniors in the nation to continue their education as Banneker/Key Scholars. There are two award levels for Banneker Key Scholarships. The first award level covers the costs of tuition, mandatory fees, room and board, and a book allowance each year for eight undergraduate consecutive semesters. The second award level provides a partial tuition scholarship and a book allowance each year for eight undergraduate consecutive semesters. Scholarship recipients will also be admitted to the Honors College. To be considered for the Banneker/Key Scholarship, students must submit a completed admission application and all required application materials by the November 1 early action deadline. Selected semifinalists are invited to campus for an interview conducted by the Banneker/Key Selection Committee. Factors such as a candidate's involvement in community service, talents or skills, leadership and character all play a part in the final awards. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions (https://admissions.umd.edu/finance/freshman-merit-scholarships/) for more information.

Creative and Performing Arts Scholarships

These are competitive scholarships that are awarded annually. Primary consideration will be given to entering freshmen and transfer students from community colleges that have outstanding talent in art, dance, music or theater. The scholarships cover in-state tuition and mandatory fees and are renewable for up to three years based upon an acceptable level of performance as defined by the respective departments. Additional application materials and information about required auditions are available directly from the College of Arts & Humanities (http://www.arhu.umd.edu).

Dean's Scholarship

This award provides talented prospective freshmen with scholarship support for two to four undergraduate consecutive semesters. Awards ranging from $1,500 for freshman year or $4,500 per year for both freshmen and sophomore years. To be considered, students must submit a completed admission application and all required application materials by the November 1 early action deadline. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions (https://admissions.umd.edu/finance/freshman-merit-scholarships/) for more information.

Frederick Douglass Scholarship

This scholarship is a prestigious University of Maryland award for academically talented transfer students from a Maryland community college. The award covers in-state tuition for four consecutive semesters of undergraduate study. To be eligible students must have completed 56 or more credits or have an associates degree and have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or higher. Students who have previously attended the University of Maryland are ineligible for this scholarship. To apply for the Frederick Douglass Scholarship, candidates must submit a completed admission application (and all required application materials) and the scholarship application by March 1. For more information, please review the Frederick Douglass Scholarship (https://admissions.umd.edu/finance/transfer-merit-scholarships/frederick-douglass-scholarship/) page of the Office of Undergraduate Admissions website.

Kelly, Shipley or Weinberg Regents Scholarships

In order to continue the commitment to outstanding students, the Board of Regents has designated several Regents Scholarships to be awarded to Maryland community college transfer students. To be selected for this award, the transfer student must have exceptional qualifications, including achievement of a 4.0 grade point average, completion of an associate's degree at a Maryland community college, evidence of creative and intellectual activities or scholarly potential and have been admitted to one of the University System of Maryland institutions. The deadline for submitting the candidate's application materials is May 15. The winner may receive the scholarship for two years, totaling no more than four semesters including summer sessions. For information, contact the University System of Maryland System Office at 301.445.1992.

Maryland State Scholarships

The Maryland Higher Education Commission (https://mhec.state.md.us/Pages/default.aspx) (MHEC), awards both need-based and merit-based scholarships to Maryland residents. There are many different programs available, including the Guaranteed Access (GA) Grant, Educational Assistance (EA) Grant and the Legislative Scholarships (Delegate and Senatorial). You may obtain more information about these and other programs by calling MHEC at 800.974.0203. All Maryland residents are expected to apply for State scholarship assistance. The initial application for many of the awards is made through the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please note that filing the FAFSA annually by the January 1 deadline is sufficient to apply for most Maryland State Scholarships at UMD, although some may require additional application forms. The application deadline for most programs is March 1. The FAFSA is available online at the Federal Student Aid (https://studentaid.gov/) website.

President's Scholarship

This award provides talented prospective freshmen with scholarship support for eight undergraduate consecutive semesters. Awards ranging from $2,000 to $12,500 per year are offered to incoming freshmen. Students are selected through the admission process with primary consideration given to academic performance in high school (high school courses and achievement), results of standardized test scores (SAT or ACT), extracurricular activities, awards, honors, recommendations and the essay. For full consideration, students must submit a complete application for admission by the November 1 early action deadline. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

President’s Transfer Scholarship
This scholarship is a two-year $5,000 per year scholarship for transfer students. No separate application is required for consideration, recipients are identified through evaluation of admission application materials. The scholarship will be awarded to the most competitive transfer students with the strongest academic records and college grade point averages. Students who are awarded the scholarship will receive notification by mail a few weeks after they receive their letter of admission. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions (https://admissions.umd.edu/finance/transfer-merit-scholarships/) for more information.

Regents Scholars Program
The Regents Scholars Program recognizes the extraordinary achievement of outstanding freshmen students. New awards are made each year in the amount of full in-state tuition, mandatory fees, room, board and a $1,000 stipend. Recipients are automatically admitted to the Honors College. A select number of the top high school scholars in the state will be considered for this most prestigious award. A complete admission application and all required application materials must be submitted by November 1 early action deadline for consideration. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions (http://www.admissions.umd.edu) for more information.

Scholarships from Other States
Several states have reciprocal agreements with the State of Maryland. Students who are residents of these states may receive funds for study in eligible post-secondary institutions in Maryland. Interested students should contact their state scholarship agencies for information.

Outside Scholarship Searches
A broad range of scholarships are available from private sources. Usually, these awards are not as well publicized as state and university programs. Therefore, students should conduct a scholarship search to locate such sources. The University of Maryland offers access to several services to students to aid them in their searches. Review the Helpful Links (https://financialaid.umd.edu/resources-policies/helpful-links/) page of the Office of Student Financial Aid website for more information on these resources.

University of Maryland Departmental Scholarships
Many of the academic departments at the University of Maryland offer merit-based scholarships. For more information, please visit the Departmental Scholarships (https://academiccatalog.umd.edu/undergraduate/fees-expenses-financial-aid/departmental-scholarships/) section of the catalog.
