

FRENCH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE MAJOR

Notice of Addendum: The program description, learning outcomes, and requirements for this program were updated effective Spring 2024 and have been published on ADDENDA TO THIS CATALOG (<https://academiccatalog.umd.edu/undergraduate/addenda/#french-language-literature-major>).

Program Director: Hervé-Thomas Campagne, Ph.D.

The undergraduate major in French (FREN) is centered on the study of the French language and the literatures and cultures of the French and Francophone people. Our faculty members teach a wide variety of courses in culture, literature, linguistics, stylistics, cinema, civilization, the contemporary French and Francophone world, and women's studies.

Students who complete the requirements for the major can expect to be able to speak, read, write, and understand French at a level that would allow them to communicate with native speakers, to recognize and interpret the diverse cultural perspectives and products of the French-speaking world, and to be culturally sensitive members of society.

Students of French have the option of living in the Language House. University faculty-led programs in Nice (semester or year-long) and Montpellier (summer) are offered by the Department, and all students majoring in French are encouraged to participate in either, or both, of these programs as an integral part of their curriculum. Students may also consider a double major in French and another discipline, such as College of Arts and Humanities majors, Business, International relations, Economics, or Journalism.

Students can satisfy the ARHU Global Engagement Requirement by taking the appropriate French language course sequence (103>203), or by taking a higher level French course.

Students must take language acquisition courses sequentially, i.e., 103, 203, 204, 250, etc. Once credit has been received in a higher-level language acquisition or grammar course, a lower-level course may not be taken for credit.

Advanced students of French may substitute 3xx or 4xx level electives for FREN204 (<https://academiccatalog.umd.edu/search/?P=FREN204>), FREN250 (<https://academiccatalog.umd.edu/search/?P=FREN250>), or FREN301 (<https://academiccatalog.umd.edu/search/?P=FREN301>), in consultation with the Advisor.

OPPORTUNITIES

Study Abroad

The Maryland-in-Nice program is one of the University of Maryland's oldest study abroad programs. Depending on placement, students studying for a semester in the program Maryland-in-Nice may earn up to 18 credits toward the completion of the major; students studying in Nice for the academic year may earn up to 33 credits. The department also administers a three-week intensive course in Montpellier (France). For information on study abroad programs, please see the program advisor and/or the Education Abroad website: <http://globalmaryland.umd.edu/offices/education-abroad/>.

Language House

The French Cluster at the Language House Immersion Program is a living-learning community that promotes language learning and cultural competency through casual daily communication in French. Guided by a native speaker of French, students make a commitment to speak only in French with their housemates and participate in diverse creative activities. For information on the Language House Immersion Program, please see the program website: <http://sllc.umd.edu/language-house/>.

Language Partner Program

SLLC-ISSS Language Partner Program (LPP) offers majors in any SLLC program at UMD the opportunity to meet with international students outside the classroom and practice their target language in an informal yet structured way. Language Partners (LPPs) meet on a regular basis at least once a week for one hour of conversation. For information on the Language Partner Program, please see the program website: <http://globalmaryland.umd.edu/offices/international-students-scholar-services/sllc-iss-s-ea-language-partner-program/>.
