The unique structure of the School of Theatre, Dance, and Performance Studies provides the opportunities of a larger community in which students can interconnect and collaborate between the different degree programs. While the degree programs in the dance and theatre disciplines retain their individuality, the school affords the inter-disciplinary prospects that enable landmark creativity and scholarship to flourish. Dynamic interaction between faculty, staff, and students encourages innovative ideas and new initiatives.

ADVISING

Dance

The College of Arts and Humanities has a dual track advising system where students meet with college advisors to discuss their ARHU and general education requirements and meet with departmental advisors to discuss the major requirements. The Dance Major requires mandatory advising each semester to keep in touch with our student base and assist majors and double majors with curricular and co-curricular choices. Advising procedures and instructions to sign up for an advising appointment can be found on the TDPS website at <http://tdps.umd.edu> and under the heading "BA Dance."

Or, you may contact:

Susan Miller, Director of Undergraduate Studies, Coordinator of Student Services and Academic Advisor
smille13@umd.edu
