

AFRICAN STUDIES MINOR

Program Coordinator: George Kintiba, Ph.D.

The African Studies Minor focuses on the history, culture, politics and economics of the peoples who populate the continent of Africa. As an interdisciplinary field of study, the minor will provide students with an understanding of the historical and cultural contexts that have and continue to shape political, economic and social development in Africa.

REQUIREMENTS

The African Studies Minor will include a total of 15 (18 if the student elects to pursue the optional Capstone offering) composed of the following:

Course	Title	Credits
Foundational Course
AASP200	African Civilization	3
Courses of Choice (two must be at the upper level)
Area 1: History, Culture, and Language (2 courses)		6
AASP310	African Slave Trade
AASP361	Caribbean Women
AASP362
AASP461
CMLT235	Black Diaspora Literature and Culture
ENGL360	African, Indian and Caribbean Writers
ENGL368	Special Topics in African American, African, and African Diaspora Literatures (topics vary; must be approved)
HIST254	African-American History to 1865
HIST310	History of South Africa
HIST319	Special Topics in History (The African City: From Ancient Mali to Modern Johannesburg)
HIST428	Selected Topics in History (HIST428B: Seven Revolutions in Post War Africa)
LANGUAGE	Any approved African language course ¹
Area 2: Politics, Society, and Development (2 courses)		6
AASP189I	HIV/AIDS in a Global Perspective
AASP360	Issues in African Development
AASP370
AASP462
AASP463
AASP482
AREC365	World Hunger, Population, and Food Supplies
ECON315	Economic Development of Underdeveloped Areas
GEOG130	Development Geography: Environmental & Social Justice
GEOG422	Changing Geographies of Sub-Saharan Africa
GVPT282	The Politics of Global Development
Capstone Course (optional)
AASP400	Directed Readings in African American Studies
AASP401	Research Directions in African-American Studies

AASP468 Special Topics in Africa and the Americas
(AASP468Z: South Africa Study Abroad Seminar)

Total Credits 15

¹ AASD presently offers introduction and elementary courses in Igbo, Twi and Yoruba, and students may also take courses in Swahili through the Big 10 Alliance.

² Other relevant courses with permission of the program. Please see the academic advisor in AASD for an approved list of courses.